Still Growing.....

DAVID'S COLUMBARIUM

The autumn of 2010 will mark another wonderful chapter in the history of our beloved cemetery. After major reconfiguration of roadways in the south end of the cemetery, we broke ground in July for David's Columbarium. A columbarium is defined as: "a chamber or wall in which urns containing ashes are stored". David's Columbarium was designed by Brightman & Mitchell Architects, Inc. and will be built by Bilbrey Construction. The columbarium is a monumental structure that is located across from the Community Mausoleum. David's Columbarium is over 33 feet tall, covers over 1000 square feet and will be home to 704 niches. During inclement weather, the columbarium can provide shelter for funeral services or family visitations. The architectural details, materials and colors complement the other buildings in the cemetery for a unified appearance. The attention to detail such as; glass panels in the cupola, compass rosette in the center of the floor, standing seam metal roof and stone vases for plantings around the outside, all combine to make this an additional place of grace and dignity in your cemetery.

An Ohio Historical Marker was placed on Mad River Road in 2001 by The Ohio Historical Society, The Ohio Bicentennial Commission, The Longaberger Company and the Landmarks Foundation Of Centerville-Washington Township (Marker Number 2-57). We are proud to be the home of such an interesting part of our community's history.

Side A: Mad River Road

The first overland route between Dayton and Cincinnati was cut by Daniel Cooper in 1795 to provide access to the new town of Dayton, located at the mouth of the Mad River in the Symmes Purchase. The survey, entered into the record by Cooper and Dr. John Hole, extended Harmer's Trace north from near Cunningham's Station on the Mill Creek to the mouth of the Mad River, establishing the earliest road between Cincinnati and Dayton. This five-mile segment between David Road and State Route 725 is the last remaining traceable portion retaining this name.

Cooper, a miller, was instrumental in the early settlement of Dayton, and Dr. Hole, the first physician in Montgomery County, established his cabin in 1796 on this part of Mad River Road.

Side B: Road from Cunningham's to Mad River

Be it remembered that pursuant to an order of Court to Daniel Cooper, Daniel Griffing and John Hole on a petition of more than twelve citizens of the County aforesaid, the following survey of a road in the said County was made and reported, to wit, Beginning at Cunningham's Station, thence along the old road four miles and a half, thence North eleven miles, thence North twenty five degrees East thirteen miles; thence North forty degrees East three miles and a quarter, thence North three miles and a half, thence North ten degrees West one mile and a quarter to the road leading from Hamilton to Dayton; thence along said road two miles and a quarter to Dayton town, at the mouth of Mad river, the whole distance being thirty eight miles and three fourths of a mile. (1797 Survey for part of Mad River Road recorded in the Hamilton County Road Book B-1)

"Generations of Care"

Superintendent's Message

The Cemetery Cleanup will begin the day after Thanksgiving, November 26, 2010.

- Everything will be removed from all monuments, vases, grave spaces and mausoleums. Items you wish to keep need to be picked up by Thanksgiving.
- You may place winter decorations on graves and in the mausoleums starting December 1, 2010.
- Winter decorations will be removed after February 28, 2011 from all grave spaces and mausoleums. Due to weather at this time of year please do not place any Spring decorations until March 15, 2011.

I am pleased to announce that your cemetery broke ground on a new outside columbarium on June 29, 2010. The columbarium will be located directly across the street from the Community Mausoleum and is called David's Columbarium. Brightman & Mitchell are the architects that designed the new columbarium that will provide granite covered niches for the cremains of loved ones. Bilbrey Construction was awarded the contract to build the columbarium and will provide the same quality workmanship that they exhibited on the Community Mausoleum, it's Chapel and Gathering Room.

David's Columbarium is a monumental structure that is located near the center of our newest upright monument burial section, Section "G", and will help identify this part of the cemetery. It will provide a final resting place for 704 loved ones in the cremation niches and provide shelter from inclement weather to visitors attending funeral services and visits to the niche area. The architectural details, materials and colors are taken directly from other buildings in the cemetery giving your cemetery a unified appearance. Completion is expected by late fall 2010. Please contact Eric Watne, Assistant Cemetery Superintendent, to be placed on an interest list at 937-434-2255 or Eric@davidscemetery.com.

I would again remind you to order your 24" holiday wreaths from the Boy Scouts. Last year we selected a new supplier and chose a Noble Fir wreath with Incensed Cedar, 3 pine cones and a bow. Everyone was pleased with the quality and how well the wreaths kept their beauty throughout the winter.

Thank you, and from your cemetery staff we wish you a healthy and prosperous New Year.
